

WELCOME TO MOOSEJAW FISHING CAMP IN BEAUTIFUL ONTARIO, CANADA!

The Moosejaw Camp is located 58 miles north/northeast of Kenora, Ontario and approximately 35 miles west of Ear Falls, Ontario. It sits on the shores of Wilcox Lake – part of the world-renowned English River System that claims majestic Lac Seul as its water source. The camp is the only one on the lake.

Fishing at Moosejaw consists primarily of Walleye, Northern Pike, and Small Mouth Bass. Muskie and Perch are also found in the river system. Many are in the trophy class and daily volumes are fantastic – plenty for good meals and take-home limits!

The cabin at Moosejaw Camp is outfitted with solar power to provide the comforts of electricity, hot and cold running water, and an indoor shower. The Moosejaw Camp also sports satellite internet for those who just can't be out of touch with civilization during your stay. A camp caretaker is nearby to provide assistance and information. Most needed items are stocked at the camp; the enclosed information will guide you in packing for your personal needs.

Your ultimate wilderness experience will begin at 7:00AM on your scheduled day of departure from Bernatello's Office Hangar at Flying Cloud Airport – Eden Prairie, MN. After a one-and-a-half-hour flight in a King Air turboprop, your group will arrive at Kenora Airport and be shuttled to the water base. From there, you will board a floatplane for the 35-minute ride to Moosejaw Camp.

Weather permitting; there is no reason why you can't be fishing by 11 AM on your first day!

On your scheduled day of departure, a floatplane will pick up your group at 10 AM for the return flight. After changing planes in Kenora you should expect to return to Bernatello's Office Hangar – Eden Prairie, MN at 1 PM.

We hope that when your trip comes to a close, you will depart with treasured memories of a special retreat in the Canadian wilderness and a desire to return year after year. Thank you for sharing the Moosejaw Camp experience with us – enjoy!

INADMISSIBILITY'S TO ENTER CANADA

I was convicted of driving while impaired by alcohol or drugs. Can I enter Canada?

If you've been convicted of driving while impaired, you may be inadmissible to Canada for serious criminality. This means that you generally can't enter Canada. If that's the case, there are options for you to enter Canada temporarily, or to become admissible again.

To enter Canada temporarily

A temporary resident permit (TRP) could allow you to enter Canada temporarily.

To get a TRP:

- you must prove that your reason for travelling to Canada is justified.
- you'll have to pay the C$200 processing fee.

There's no guarantee you'll be allowed to enter or stay in Canada.

To become admissible again

There is a way you may be able to become admissible to Canada again. If you're no longer inadmissible, you could enter Canada without having to get a TRP every time you want to come back. This is called criminal rehabilitation.

You can apply for criminal rehabilitation if:

- you meet the eligibility criteria and
- at least 5 years have passed since you completed your sentence or committed the crime.

If you committed an impaired driving offense before December 18, 2018

Tougher penalties for impaired driving came into effect on December 18, 2018. If you committed an impaired driving offence before this date, we'll determine if you're inadmissible based on the penalties in force at the time.

This means you may be inadmissible for criminality, and not serious criminality, unless you received a prison sentence in Canada longer than 6 months.

If you're inadmissible for criminality, you may be eligible for deemed rehabilitation if at least 10 years has passed since you completed your sentence.

MINOR CHILDREN

TRAVELING TO CANADA

If you are entering Canada on an International flight with a minor child/ren (ages 1-17) they will need a passport. If you are driving into Canada a birth certificate will be accepted.

NOTE: Be sure to fill out the PARENTAL/GUARDIAN APPROVAL FORM (included on the site) if your child/ren are traveling with only one parent or with a guardian.

MINOR CHILDREN FISHING

REGULATIONS IN CANADA

Your child/ren will not need a fishing license if they are under the age of 18 and accompanied by a person who has a valid Ontario Recreational Fishing License & Outdoors card. Any fish kept are part of the catch and possession limit of the person who holds the license. If your child/ren do not have a valid fishing license, they will need to carry a government issued id when fishing (passport will suffice). Or, they may purchase their own Ontario Recreational Fishing License & Outdoors card to have their own limits.

FISHING LICENSE

TO SHORTEN YOUR WAIT IN KENORA AND ARRIVE EARLIER AT THE MOOSEJAW CAMP GO TO:

<https://www.huntandfishontario.com>

AND GET IT DONE IN 5 MINUTES ONLINE

OUTDOORS CARDS:

IF YOU HAVE A CURRENT OUTDOORS CARD YOU CAN JUST APPLY FOR AN 8-DAY FISHING LICENSE.

IF YOU DO NOT HAVE AN OUTDOORS CARD YOU WILL NEED TO APPLY FOR THAT FIRST, AND THEN FOR YOUR FISHING LICENSE. YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO GET A FISHING LICENSE IF YOU DO NOT HAVE AN OUTDOORS CARD.

NOTE: BE COGNITIVE OF YOUR LIMITS OF FISH BASED ON THE TYPE OF FISHING LICENSE YOU PURCHASED WHEN RETURNING TO THE U.S.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PARENTAL/GUARDIAN APPROVAL FOR MINOR TO TRAVEL AND MEDICAL AUTHORIZATION

If one legal parent is traveling outside the United States with a minor child, this form should be signed by the legal parent that is not traveling.

If a minor child is traveling outside the United States with someone other than either legal parent, BOTH legal parents should sign this form.

If one or both legal parents are deceased, a certified death certificate should be attached to this form. If one of the legal parent's whereabouts is unknown, a separate affidavit stating such is suggested.

Note: Most countries do not require these forms, but we feel that it is in the best interest of the traveling parent, the absent parent, and child to have the information available to authorities. In any case, the medical instructions are a good idea. It is the traveler's ultimate responsibility to verify entry and exit requirements of all destinations. This is not to be construed as legal advice and is only to be considered a best practice.
